WHY WRITE A WILL?

Making a Will is one of the simplest ways to look after the people and things that matter most to you. It gives you control over what happens in the future and removes uncertainty at a difficult time. Many people put it off, thinking it is only for later in life, but a Will is useful at any age.

- 01 STAY IN CONTROL
of who inherits your money, property and belongings
- 02 PROTECT WHO YOU CARE ABOUT
Give clear instructions to make sure your loved ones are looked after when you're gone
- 03 MAKE THINGS CLEARER
Reduce the risk of disputes and confusion by setting out your wishes properly

WHERE TO START WITH WRITING A WILL?

The idea of writing a Will can feel overwhelming, but it doesn't have to be complicated.

Starting with a few simple decisions can make the whole process much easier.

- What you own
- Who you want to benefit
- Who will carry out your wishes

Once you have these points clear, the rest of your Will becomes far more straightforward.

A solicitor can then help you put everything in place properly and with confidence.

WHAT WE DO

Having a solicitor gives you support to navigate the legal process at what can be a difficult time.

According to the law in Scotland, Wills need to be written in a specific way to be considered valid.

This is where we come in. Our expert team will ensure that your instructions are clear, so that your loved ones are left with no uncertainty after you're gone.

After informing us of your wishes, we prepare the Will and take care of the paperwork for you. Wills also need to be signed by a witness.

WHAT'S NEXT?

If you've read this guide, you've already taken an important first step.

Making a Will isn't about rushing decisions, but about getting the right support and advice for your situation. Even a short conversation can help clarify what you need and what to do next.

Putting a Will in place now can save time, stress and uncertainty later on. The sooner you start, the sooner you can have peace of mind knowing your wishes are clear.
